THIS INSTITUTION is situated west of Berkeley, near the foothills, and in full view of the Golden Gate. The location is an ideal one for an establishment of its kind, and easily accessible from Oakland, Alameda, San Francisco and all neighboring towns and cities. The climate is mild and the scenery of land and water unsurpassed among the suburban sites of the beautiful city of Berkeley. The object of the Academy is to provide boys under fourteen with the safeguards of a good, cheerful and comfortable Christian home during the early part of their school life. It is conducted by the Christian Brothers, well known for their success as an order of religious teachers.

A SKETCH

T. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY was founded in 1870 in the City of Oakland as a day school for boys. In 1880 it became a boarding school, and its steady growth made it necessary in the early part of the nineties to look for larger and more commodious quarters. Peralta Park Hotel was accordingly purchased and fitted up for the home of the Academy.

In 1903 it was opened for the reception of boys, and has since won the unqualified endorsement of its patrons, who now come from all parts of California and other States, as well as from Mexico and Central America.

The buildings are commodious, including the main edifice and several outbuildings, among which is a fine gymnasium fitted up with modern appliances and stage scenery.

The grounds are spacious, containing about 15 acres well wooded and adapted to the requirements of the school. An excellent baseball field is in close proximity and affords plenty of amusement and healthful outdoor exercise at nearly all seasons of the year. There are besides ball courts, lawn tennis grounds, etc.

The school year opens in September and closes in the last decade of June. Pupils are received at any time during the term, and classified according to their age and capacity. No boy is received for less than one term of five months.

471 Eleventh Street, near Washington
OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA

THE "Palace" was opened about seventeen years ago. The unequalled patronage that it has received during that time proves its merit. Each year the business of the Palace has increased so greatly that it well deserves the name it has attained, that of being "The Most Popular and Best Patronized Place" in Oakland.

For several years past, the original home of the Palace, at 1012 Washington St., has been entirely too small to accommodate its many patrons. Day after day hundreds of persons have been turned away from the Palace without being served, owing to the lack of seating facilities. For many months the proprietors, Peterson and Hesse, have been seeking some means of enlarging their seating capacity, and quite recently they secured the store at 471 Eleventh Street, which has been remodeled and altered to such an extent that it has been pronounced by many critics to be the neatest furnished and most inviting dining room on the Pacific Coast.

The land of bread fruit, cocoanuts and flowers. Clement Wragge, in "The Romance of the South Seas," says:

"Tahiti is the island of the gods! People don't know, they have no conception of the glories of these islands. The globe-trotter follows the beaten track and leaves this fascinating spot out. One should go not only for the short stay that the steamer remains in port, but stay over a steamer and become acquainted with the natives in their picturesque villages."
